MEMBER NEWS

Shaw Industries to build a new carpet recycling Plant in Ringgold, Georgia. The facility will be operational in 2015 and will focus on recycling nylon and polyester carpet. Shaw will create a high purity post-consumer recycled material that can be used in a broad range of applications. "The development of Evergreen Ringgold is the latest example of Shaw's sustainable business strategy at work," notes Shaw Chairman and CEO Vance Bell. "This addition to our recycling portfolio reflects our continued efforts to drive innovation into the business and to protect and make efficient use of resources while focusing on long-term financial success."
